- and to assert or defend against any claim(s).

Pursuant to Art. 6(1)(1) lit. b GDPR, data processing is necessary for the purposes stated for the appropriate processing of the mandate and for the mutual fulfilment of obligations arising from the mandate agreement.

The personal data collected by us for the purpose of the mandate will be stored until expiry of the limitation period in accordance with § 199(3)(1) BGB (German Civil Code) for 10 years after termination of the mandate and deleted thereafter, unless we are obliged to store the data for a longer period of time in accordance with Article 6(1)(1)c GDPR (German Data Protection Act) on the basis of tax and commercial law storage and documentation obligations (from German Commercial Code, StGB or AO) or in exceptional cases the safeguarding of legitimate interests justifies the storage of the data in accordance with Article 6(1)(1) f GDPR.

3. Communication of data to third parties

Your personal data will not be transferred to third parties for purposes other than those listed below.

Insofar as this is necessary in accordance with Art. 6 (1)(1)b GDPR for the processing of client relationships with you, your personal data will be passed on to third parties. This includes, for purposes of correspondence as well as asserting and defending your rights within the scope of the mandate, in particular the disclosure to opponents of proceedings and their representatives (in particular their lawyers) as well as courts and other public authorities. The data passed on may be used by the third party exclusively for the aforementioned purposes. The attorney-client privilege remains unaffected. Insofar as the data concerned is subject to the attorney-client privilege, it will only be passed on to third parties in consultation with you.

For the purposes of processing and invoicing the mandate, we use EDP systems and programs on which IT service companies commissioned by us perform maintenance, backup and other technical, non-mandate-related services, during the execution of which they may also have to inspect your personal data. When handling data, the service providers act exclusively within the scope of their mandate without their own decision-making powers. This handling can be a passing on of data in the sense of the GDPR.
